*The Connecticut Public
Legacy Society*

Your legacy gift sustains the unique promise of public media.

OUR LEGACY SOCIETY was created to honor those donors who believe strongly in the mission of public media, and want to preserve
it for generations to come.

These generous, visionary individuals have included Connecticut Public in their estate plans, helping to ensure that the values established by public media are sustained and strengthened far into the future.

Too often, these thoughtful gifts go unrecognized because they come at the end of a donor's life. The Legacy Society is our way of acknowledging their commitment to the future, today. We hope it will encourage you to do the same.

Ways to Give

Legacy Society members can participate through a variety of planned giving methods that direct a portion of their estate to support current or future operating needs.

Your planned gift may take many forms, such as a direct gift, a bequest, the assignment of an insurance policy, or gift of appreciated securities, among others. Gifts are recognized upon designation in estate plans and in accordance with the Legacy Society members' wishes.

Regardless of the type of gift you intend to leave from your estate, the purpose is determined by you. If you have a particular use in mind for your gift, our office would welcome the opportunity to work with you and your attorney on specific language to assure that your gift will be used as you intend. Please consult your tax advisor for specific advice on your estate planning.

Benefits of your Support

Every year, more donors are discovering the benefits of supporting Connecticut Public through their estate plans. These donations can offer many advantages:

- Reduced estate taxes
- Provide a life income stream
- Allow you to make a larger gift than you thought possible
- Receive a current income tax deduction
- Reduce or avoid capital gains tax

With your support, we can continue to be Connecticut's leading source for civil discourse, independent journalism, informational and inspiring storytelling, and educational programming.

Our Vision

To be an essential source for truth, information and ideas that connect the citizens of Connecticut to their communities and to the world.
